If the views of the experts are anything to go by, Indian economy is seeing its best time now. The economy is growing and creating more employment for the country's youth. The job market in the country is certainly bullish. Tapping on the potential of this bullish job market, Times Ascent Mega Job Fair created enough buzz among the youngsters who attended this event in large numbers.

Ascent Mega Job Fair, a job fair organised by The Times Group's periodical Times Ascent in association with the University of Mumbai on Saturday between 10 AM and 5 PM, witnessed the presence of 38 companies which set up their shops to hire the best talent. The fair gave the recruiters an opportunity to look for the most eligible candidates whereas the fair was a perfect platform for the tens of hundreds of job seekers to interact with their prospective employers. It gave the young job seekers a chance to check their eligibility as well as the drawbacks, if any.

The job fair was inaugurated by Dr Sanjay Deshmukh, vice chancellor of University of Mumbai. While speaking about this initiative, Dr Deshmukh said, "This is a good initiative and the event is also well organised. I hope that the students will be able to make good use of this job fair."

Dr Smita Shukla, director, Alkesh Dinesh Mody Institute, Mumbai University, informed that this was the first time any such job fair was organised by the university. "If one has to look at the modern education system, it focuses a lot on placements. This was the university's first attempt on that front. We definitely look forward to repeat this exercise in the coming years as well," told Shukla.

BP Marines Academy, Intelenet Global Services, WNS Global Services, Sterling Talent Solutions, Bankedge, Skill Quarter.com, Marcus Evans, Worldex, NIHAM, Navnit Group - Shreenath Motors, Coppergate Consultants, F

Gheewala HR Consultants, NIIT, Gresasca Ceramics, Speedjet Aviation, Life Insurance Corporation of India, RK Home Solutions, Our Town, Gennext Motors, Divine HR, Pioneer Callnet, Chinagate restaurant, Marshalls Enterprises, Kohinoor Televideo, ITC Maratha, Indiabulls Home Loans, Shaman Group-Arya Honda, Fun & Joy, Shreem Hyundai, Janalaxmi Financial Services, FRR Forex, Global Quest Solutions, Bharat Stars, Morpheus Consultants, Genetic Callnet, Euclid - Tenders info, Aditya Institute and Laxmi

Garments were among the participating companies. The response these organisations received from the job aspirants was something that lived up to their expectations. According to the event organisers, the total number of registrations that happened at the job fair exceeded 2,000. Recruiters were happy with the number of turn up of aspiring job seekers. Aanchal Sharma, who came from Thane was already working as an HR personnel. She applied for a job at the fair. "The job fair provided me an opportunity to upgrade my job profile."

Kishore Ghatwai from Bharat Stars Services was appreciative of the way the fair was organised. "The fair was organised quite well and we were able to receive a good response from it. The number of aspirants who turned up were more than what we expected and we are in the process of shortlisting them and calling them for the next rounds of the selection process. We look forward to be a part of these activities in future as well," quipped Ghatwai.

Mark Christopher from Marcus Evans reaffirmed the same and added that the venue was also well suited for the event. "We were able to garner decent applications and although we haven't confirmed anyone till now, we are in the process of selecting the right candidates for the job profiles that we have in the organisation," he said.

While speaking about his experience at the Mega Job Fair, Arnab Agrawal from Coppergate Consultants informed that the organisation was satisfied with the student turnaround during the event. "We were able to scan a good number of candidates for the openings that we advertised for. We were able to meet more than four hundred candidates. We gave on-the-spot job offer to five candidates while several more hirings that were initiated at the job fair are underway. The venue was also very good as many candidates turned up. I only wish more candidates were there from areas like Thane and Navi Mumbai," Agrawal said.

Alisha Haseja, from Kohinoor Televideo informed that about 100 candidates were scanned during the job fair. "We also shortlisted some candidates for the HR vertical during the job fair," Haseja informed.

Sarita from Malad, an MBA degree holder said, "I came to know about the job fair and applied. With the first round cleared, I hope to get the job."

Annabelle D'Souza, a sales professional was happy that she got a lucrative job offer at the job fair. "While I am already working, I have been on a lookout for a better opportunity since last four months.

Nonetheless, I am happy that this job fair provided me the opportunity that I have been looking for," said D'Souza.
